२०१०

Lord Ganesha has a significant place in all our lives. This year, for our calendar, we have associated with three world renowned artists to create never-seen-before paintings of our beloved lord from twelve significant locations across India and beyond.

It is said that an artist has the magic to breathe life into paintings. These three celebrated artists drew inspiration from the unique Gajanana idols and their amazing temple structures to create masterpieces featured in this calendar.

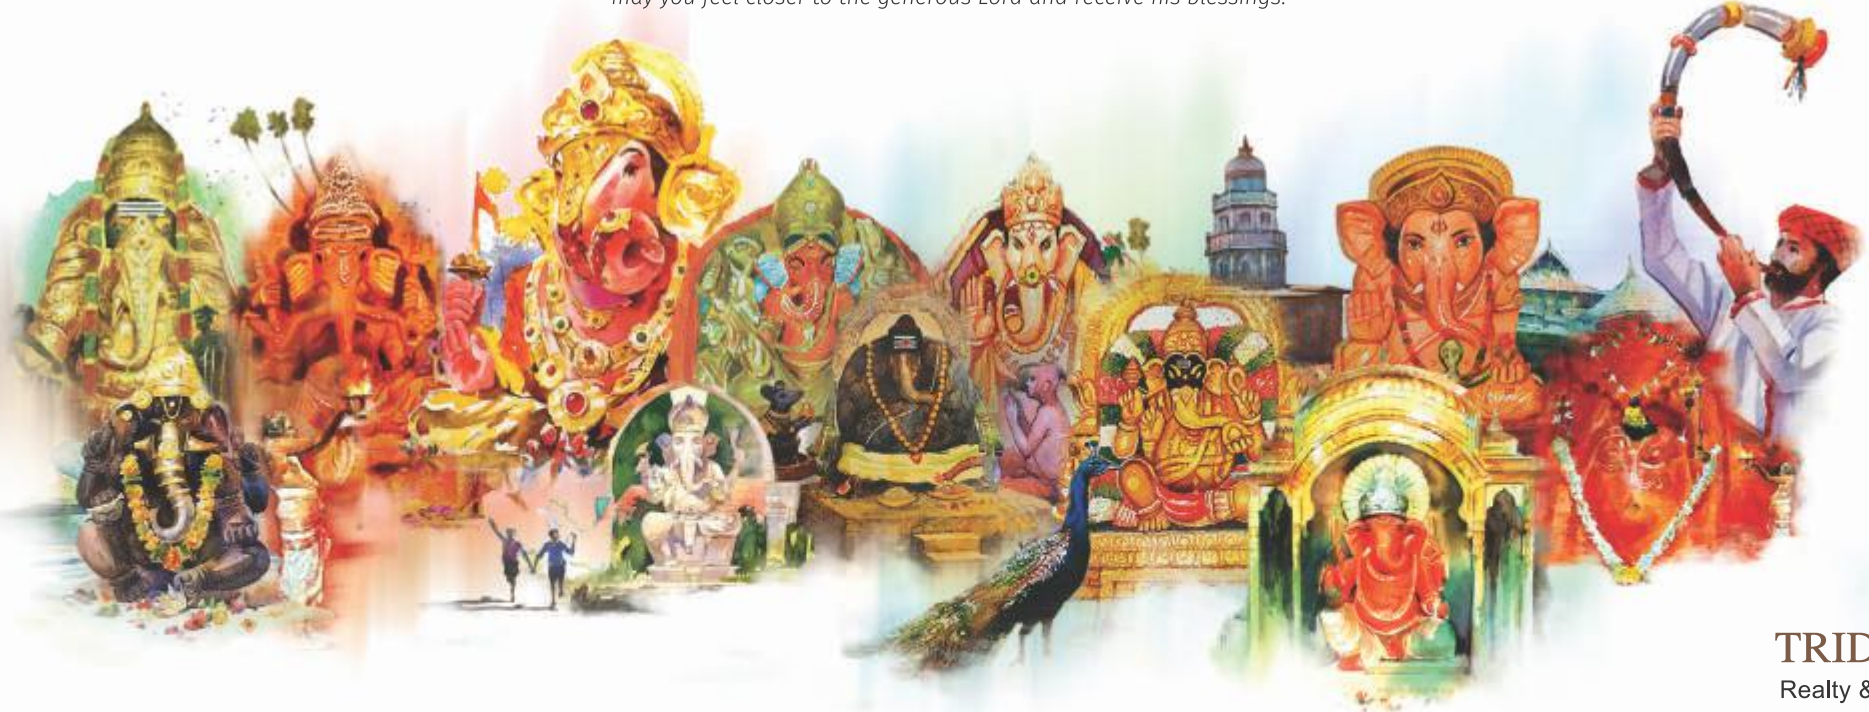

Please note that the tales mentioned in here are lore passed on by word of mouth and there could be various versions of the same story. We've just picked one such version to depict Lord Ganesha.

Pankaj Bawdekar, a prominent contemporary artist, captures cityscapes of Mumbai in his paintings. His art pieces have been displayed in prestigious art galleries all over the world.

Vikrant Shitole, a master of water colours, has won various national & international awards. He re-energizes by travelling, experiencing different cultures and observing people in daily life.

Nanasaheb Yeole is an alumnus of J. J. School of Arts, Mumbai. His brilliant watercolour paintings majorly capture the unique essence of city streets, busy markets and raw rural life of India. He has a number of awards and recognitions from all across India.

As you start using this calendar, may you feel closer to the generous Lord and receive his blessings!
