BUILDING NEIGHBOURHOODS

Our idea of perfect living includes, not just a great home but also an equally great neighbourhood. This has motivated us to initiate three programmes - Tridhaatu Protsaahan, Tridhaatu Sanskruti and Tridhaatu Sanrakshan.

Protsaahan aims to encourage a healthy lifestyle and at the same time acts as a pedestal for uplifting the lesser popular sports and sportspersons.

Sanskruti upholds and promotes Indian culture and arts. In this age of western influences, it is very important to maintain the essence of our roots, our culture.

Sanrakshan propagates the protection of our environment through awareness drives and initiatives / programs, urging people to become more responsible towards nature.

Tridhaatu strives to uplift its neighbourhoods with a mix of everything that's positive and motivating.
